

Try Mind Mapping Mini Promotional Pack

This "Try Mind Mapping" mini-promotional pack can be used to spark interest in Mind Mapping – it will make it easy for you to hand details to friends, family and colleagues.

Below there is an A4 poster, A5 Big Bookmarks with space to make notes, perhaps even for adding keywords if a Mind Map is going to be created of a book, standard Bookmarks, plus a postcard sized version.

The Big Bookmarks are really handy; I wonder why more Bookmarks aren't made this size?

You may wish to add your own instructions and even business details and course details if you run courses. These items can be printed out and optionally laminated for longevity. Tip; most laminators can handle thin paper back to back should you wish to make it double sided. If running a course, you may like to hand the Mind Map to participants – it is a good idea to give several copies to each person – they can then pass them to their friends, family and colleagues. If you are a personal Mind Map user, why not introduce a few other non-users to the format – everything they need to know to get them started is on the Mind Map below.

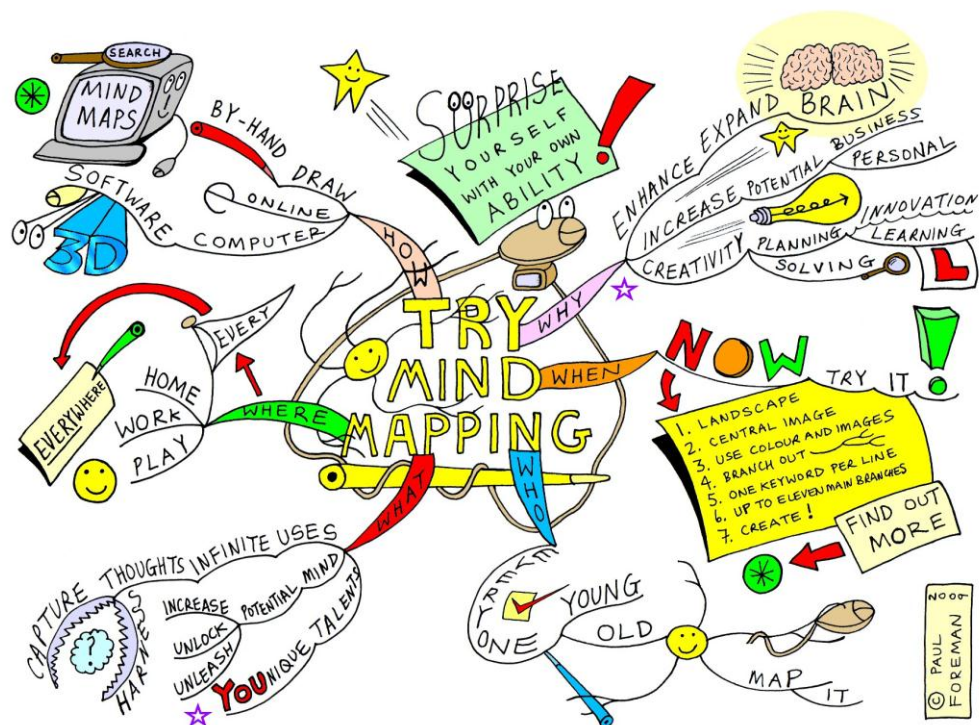

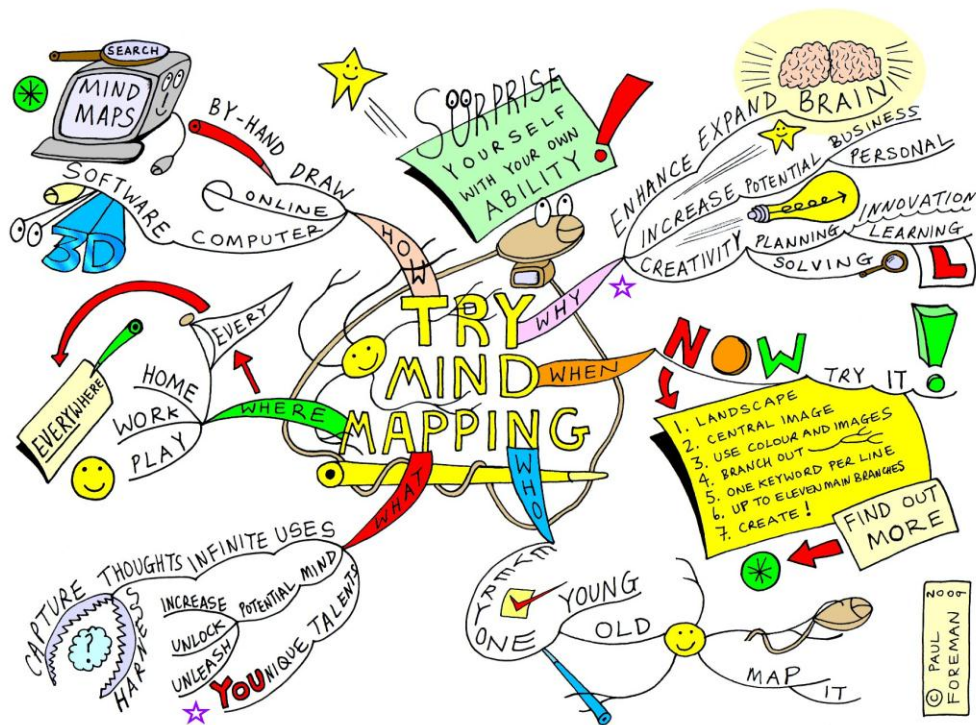

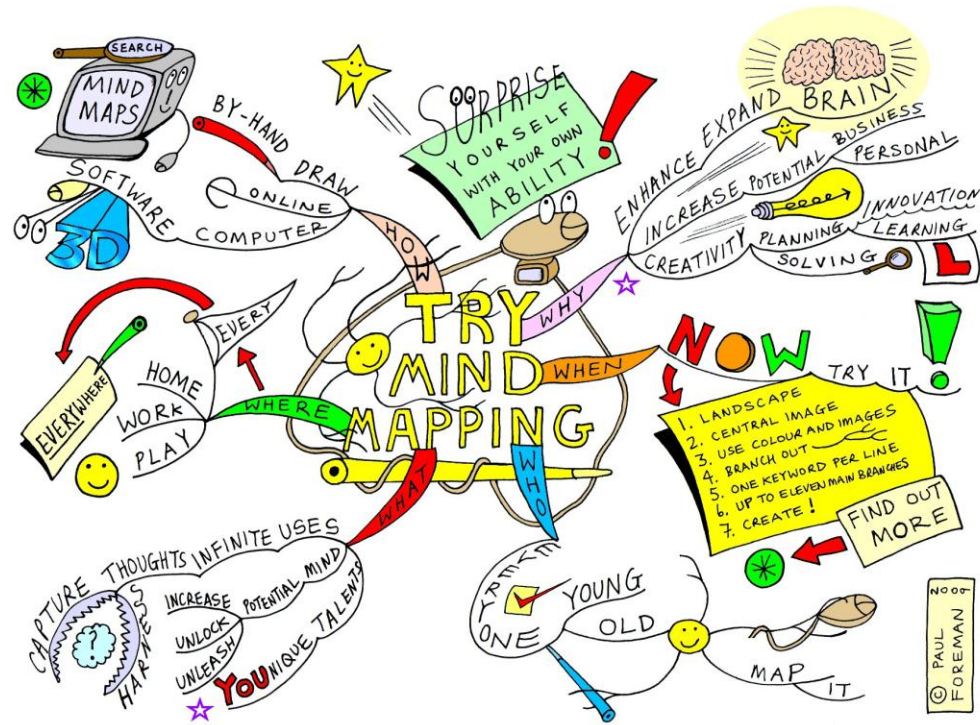

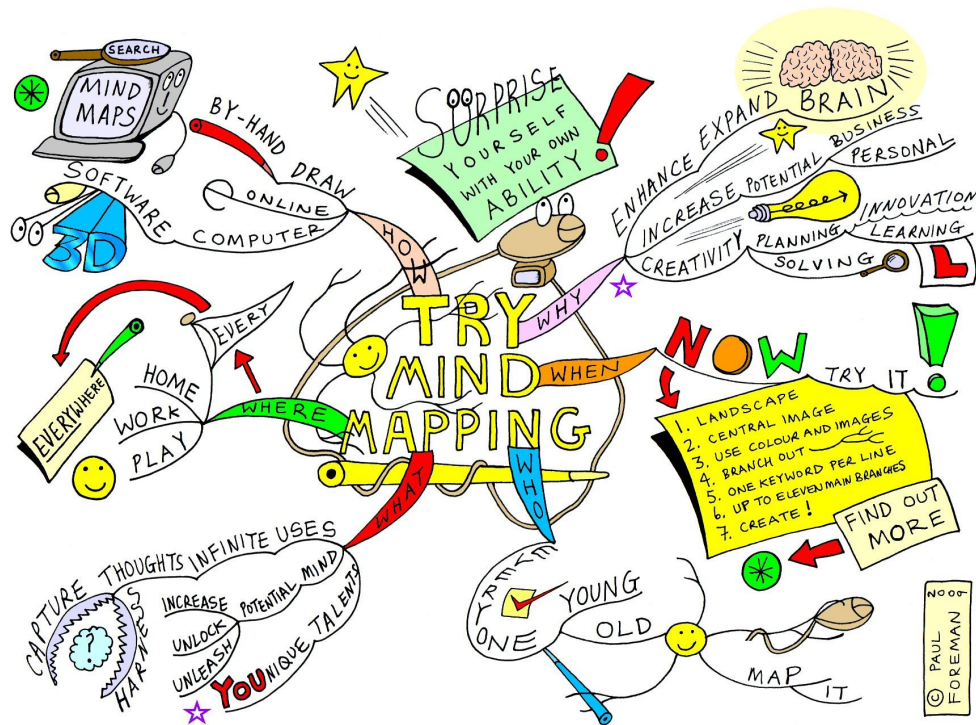

There's more! If you wish, you can also buy the T-Shirt! <http://www.cafepress.com/trymindmapping>

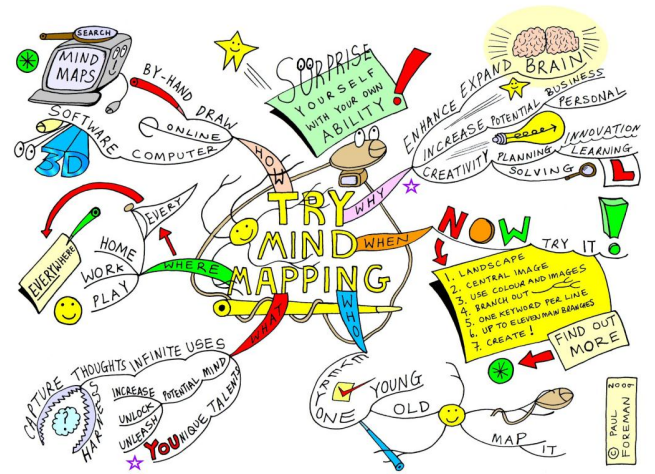

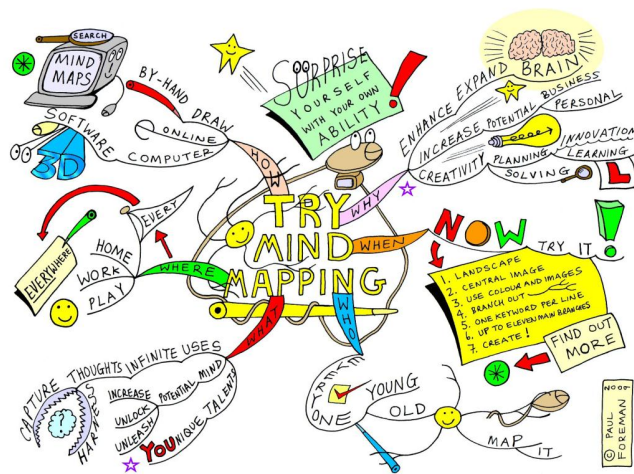

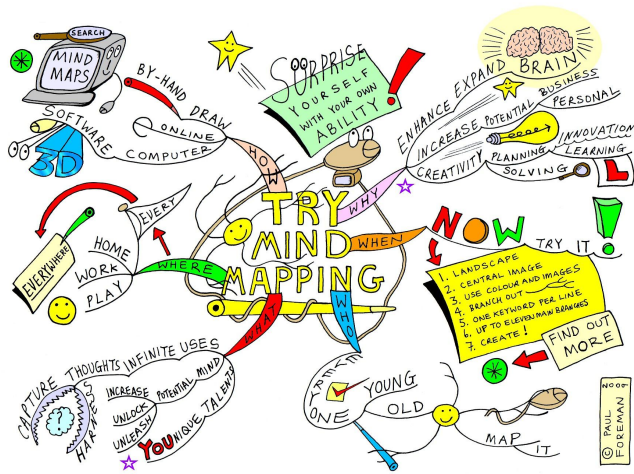

And an alternative design to help promote Mind Mapping: "Be Smart – Mind Map it!"

Mindmaps ® were invented by Tony Buzan

They help us progress from "linear" (one-dimensional) through
"lateral" (two-dimensional) to "radiant" (multi-dimensional) thinking.
